Mr. Cardwell said there was no express law on the subject, and this bill would provide the law. As to the infringement of the Executive, when Governor Holliday wanted to appoint the guards the question was referred to the Attorney-General and he decided against the Revidjusters had done. General Field, a Democratic Attorney-General, had decided against his party and in favor of the unjust Rezidjuster party.

Mr. Gibson made a strong and fearless windication of the action of his committee.

Mr. Stewart said he was a member of the committee and did favor the bill.

Mr. Smith was in favor of emasculating all Mahone officials from interference in the conduct of State offices.

The roll was called and the bill passed.

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Hubard moved that a set of these Reports be sent to the office of each county court clerk.

Mr. Meredith said the clerk never would be able to keep these books in his possession; they would be carried off.

The amendment was rejected.

The bill was then recommitted to the convey the title of the Commonwealth to certain lands in the county of Elizabeth City upon certain conditions to the trustees of the Hampton Normal and Agricultural Institute.

JUDGE CLAIBORNE'S CASE,

NO. 11.

Charged with Drinking to Excess and Upfitness for Office-Committee for Courts of Justice Investigating the Charges. The wife of Colonel H. Coalter Cabell

Recently the following memorial was presented to the Legislature and referred to the Committee for Courts of Justice:

presented to the Legislature and referred to the Committee for Courts of Justice:

We, the undersigned, members of the bar practicing law in the courts of Frank-lin county, and others, who are citizens of Franklin county, reepectfully petition your honorable body to remove Thomas B. Claiborne, present judge of the County of Court of Franklin county, and assign the following causes for said removal:

1. That the present incumbent, Thomas B. Claiborne, is notoriously and wholly incompetent, both from habits and acquirements, to discharge the onerous and responsible duties of County-Court judge; he has never studied law, either before or since his elevation to the bench (?), or has he followed any business that would give him such general knowledge of courts and their proceedings as is even ordinarily possessed by justices, sheriffs, and other county officers; that he has filled no position, so far as we know, of public trust except as appointee under the Federal Government as a revenue officer.

2. That Thomas B. Claiborne often gets drunk, often drinking to excess in termitime—so much as of itself to render him until for the discharge of his duties as ture—lounge, curtains, carpets, &c.—which they found on fire.

Dr. H. Wythe Davis and Dr. Nalle, who are near neighbors of Colonel Cabell, who resides at No. 106 west Grace, were sent Vaughan.

About the Fire Alarm.

RICHMOND VA., January 11, 1884. To the Editor of the Dispatch : Will you please state through the columns of your paper that the failure of some of the fire-alarm stations to register the alarm turned in Tuesday from Station 13 was due to the fact that the fire-alarm wires were crossed by telephone wires falling on them. The telephone wires are placed above the fire-alarm wires in a great many places in the city, and as they pass from housetop to housetop are necessari-ly insecurely fastened very often. We are troubled after every storm with similar accidents, and unless some provision is made to remedy this evil we cannot rely upon the accuracy of the fire-alarm. In this case the circuit was clear within a half-hour after the alarm was turned in. G. E. PAYNTER, Superintendent Fire-Alarm Telegraph.

A Card from Mr. White. RICHMOND, January 11, 1884. To the Editor of the Dispatch :

I was called upon by General R. L.

Walker soon after his appointment as en-gineer to examine, with Major E. T. D. Myers, the masonry and foundation of the new addition to the Virginia penitentiary and did so. A written report was made condemning both. General Walker there after brought to my office an unfinished plan prepared by Marvin, the convict, re-questing me to copy, alter, and make such improvements as I saw fit. Finding Marvin's plan entirely impracticable (as any one can see by calling at my office), I threw it aside, and prepared the plans by which the improvements were made, together with necessary bills of materials and measurements of quantities. This statement is not made in the interest of notoriety, but to avoid misapprehension in the minds of my friends who knew of my connection with the matter. Very respectfully, P. J. White. Architect.

liam A. Wyatt:

Gentlemen,—I reply to your card asking real estate agents to define their position towards mechanics, we will say that we have always held that when a real estate agent accepts the agency of property he is in honor bound to represent his principal as he would himself; and therefore is false to his trust, and does not honestly represent his principal, when he exacts or receives a commission from the mechanic for repairs, as it is evident that the said commission is added to the bill and thus becomes an additional charge on the landlord, making two commissions received by the agent, when he had agreed to represent his principal for his one legitimate charge. We are glad to see that the mechanics of our city wish to be true to themselves, to the interest of property-owners, and to the agents who do not place them in a false position when their bills are used as vouchers.
